

GREAT OAKS PUBLIC SAFETY SERVICES
LEADERSHIP SERIES PRESENTS:

PETE HAVEL

“THE ARSONIST IN THE OFFICE”

Have you ever worked with an Arsonist? Arsonists may be that toxic troublemaker inside your agency or they may be mindsets of the past that haven't been changed, bad habits, broken communication channels, bad assumptions, and leaders who spend too much time protecting themselves and not enough building their teams. Pete Havel, author of “The Arsonist in the Office” and featured speaker and trainer at police and fire leadership conferences around the country, will show you how to build a culture of excellence, strong leadership teams, and successfully fireproof you and your team against bad behavior.

This event is designed for the public safety executives and leaders, including Police & Fire Chiefs, Commanders, and Municipal Government Administrators responsible for leading modern public service agencies of small, medium and large communities.

All attendees will receive the book “The Arsonist in the Office” by Pete Havel.

There is a second day of training on September 13th for all others in your organization—send your line-level, first-line supervisors and others on your team to the follow-up class the next day so that you ensure that everyone in your organization is hearing the same message.

If you attend day one and send anyone from your organization on day two, they get 50% discount for their attendance and a copy of the book. ******
